

Curriculum Vitae

G. Papageorgantas brings more than 30 years of professional experience and track record in the fields of Project Finance, Private Equity, Privatizations (Concessions, M&A) in Greece, Eastern/South-eastern Europe. During his career he held various positions at Ergo Bank, Barclays Bank, Shell, Emporiki Venture Capital, Emporiki Bank (a subsidiary of Credit Agricole Group) and the Hellenic Republic Asset Development Fund (HRADF). He currently advises large corporations on strategy and investments and is a Venture Partner at a Greek, energy focused, private equity fund. He possesses extensive senior management experience at Board of Directors level having served on the Board of more than 10 listed, privately held, and state-owned companies in Greece and Eastern Europe. George holds a BSc in Business Administration from the American College of Greece and an MBA in Finance from Brunel University (Henley Business School) in the UK.