

Curriculum Vitae

C. Vardakari has an extensive professional career in the broader financial sector. For fifteen consecutive years, she held the position of CEO at Piraeus Factoring S.A. and served as an Executive Board Member of the same company. She was also a Non-Executive Board Member and a member of the Audit Committee at the Public Properties Company S.A. (ETAD S.A.). She has worked as a senior executive at HSBC Bank (Corporate & Private Banking) and in major Greek systemic banks and their subsidiaries, contributing significantly to the development of Factoring in Greece as a Senior Executive at ABC FACTORS S.A. Additionally, she has served as a Business Consultant at Interaction S.A., specializing in financial matters and feasibility studies across various sectors of the economy. Currently, she is an Independent Non-Executive Board Member of Attica Bank and a member of both the Risk Committee and the Nomination Committee. She is also an Independent Non-Executive Board Member of JUGOPETROL AD, a 100% subsidiary of HELLENIQ ENERGY S.A., one of the largest oil companies in the Balkans. She holds a degree in Economics from the University of Piraeus, with a specialization in Business Organization and Management, and an MBA in Finance from École Normale Supérieure in Paris.